Winemaker, Philipp Pfunder

"A blend of our two most acclaimed varieties, Syrah and Grenache thoughtfully come together to feature a well-crafted, powerful wine with tremendous finesse and elegance. Embark on a voyage of beautiful clove and pepper along with a gamey, almost cured meat decadence on the palate. A warmth and depth that can only be displayed by our Syrah pairs with a touch of Grenache providing a beautiful lift, while well-integrated oak provides a touch of vanillin; subtle yet present and endlessly alluring."

Jeb Dunnuck - 97 pts.

"Black raspberries, hot stones, graphite, and peppery spice all emerge from this blockbuster Syrah that's full-bodied, ripe, and opulent. It's a monster of a wine that brings the richness and power, yet it stays beautifully balanced as well. I like it today, yet I see no reason it shouldn't evolve for a decade."

Robert Parker, Wine Advocate - 94 pts.

"It has detailed scents of black cherry jam with layers of aniseed, violet, charcuterie and mint and a silky, seamless frame with notable length and purity."

Winemaker, Philipp Pfunder

"Audacious boasts a dark side everyone has come to know and love. Rich on the nose, it unveils chocolate, caramel and sawdust beneath a powerful exterior. Grenache's zippy bright fruit launches through wet riverbed rock and limestone coolness. Carignan's fiery persona adds spice and life, while Cabernet and Syrah are trusted to provide heavy, dark fruit like plum and blackberry along with beautiful mint and eucalyptus. Collectively, this chorus provides a broad mouthfeel and singing tannin structure."

Jeb Dunnuck - 94 pts.

"The 2018 Audacious is Southern France-like blend of 31% Grenache, 26% Carignan, 24% Cabernet Sauvignon, and the rest Syrah. It's another ripe, heady, full-bodied effort from this estate that has ample black and blue fruits as well as notes of scorched earth, graphite, and ground pepper. It has the depth and structure to evolve for 8-10 years."

Robert Parker, Wine Advocate - 94 pts.

"It offers graphite-laced blueberry fruits with notes of mint leaves, coffee and violet on the nose. The full-bodied palate is juicy and flavorful, its powerful fruits supported by grainy tannins, and it finishes long on a minerally note."

BEGUILING 2018

LAW ESTATE WINES

85% Grenache, 15% Syrah

831 Cases Produced

Winemaker, Philipp Pfunder

"The lifted aromatics of this wine resemble the beautiful sound of a violin. Its nose is delicately wound around a core of concentrated red fruit characteristics such as cranberry, red currants and raspberry. White flower blossom, wet stone, graphite and juicy pomegranate play in unison with subtle notes of caramel popcorn, black tea and rich, fresh earth. The palate displays a harmonic balancing act with beautiful grip, yet plenty of brightness. This wine possesses a true focus that is playful and lively, leading into a cascading, soft, and generous finish."

Jeb Dunnuck - 97 pts.

"Another thrill a second is the 2018 Beguiling, a Grenache-dominated wine that includes 15% Syrah. Its lighter ruby hue is followed by awesome notes of kirsch liqueur, blackberries, toasted spices, and roasted garrigue. Rich, full-bodied, powerful, yet also balanced, and with a distinct sense of minerality on the finish, it's going to shine for 8-10 years as well."

Robert Parker, Wine Advocate - 95+ pts.

"...the 2018 Beguiling has a medium ruby-purple color and a nose of berry jam, licorice, powdered sugar and earthy accents. It offers powerful, spicy flavors in a silky, super juicy frame and finishes long and layered. An elegant expression that isn't ashamed of its full California fruit."

“Bringing a seductively playful attitude to the table, this Rioja inspired beauty is anything but laid back. The breadth of dense, dark fruit, coupled with meatiness, spice and clove with just a hint of a soy, builds a textural character on the nose that is accentuated on the palate. A brambly blackberry bush provided by Graciano supports the texture and determination of the Tempranillo with an elegant freshness and tension. This full bodied beauty will be sure to bring the party to any table.”

Jeb Dunnuck - 96 pts.

“It has a big, meaty, salty, spicy style to go with ample black cherry and darker fruits, full-bodied richness, terrific balance, and a great finish. It’s another pedal-to-the-metal, balanced, beautiful wine from winemaker Philipp Pfunder.”

Robert Parker, Wine Advocate - 93-95 pts.

“It has an inky purple-black color and scents of cassis with graphite, cast iron, aniseed, violet and soy sauce. The full-bodied palate has a serious, mineral character with a pleasantly rustic touch of chew and a very long, spicy finish.”

“With an intent on being bold, yet refined, First Tracks carries an unassuming confidence that needs to be tasted to be believed. Its trifecta of Petit Verdot, Cabernet and Syrah, delivers seductive wafts of dried herbs, violet, juicy blackberry, cassis, and red currant aromas. There is no mistaking this wine’s mysterious intrigue with hints of sweet pipe tobacco, polished leather, and sandal wood. With its full mouthfeel and bold tannin physic, you will experience for yourself a wine that is truly at the top of its class.”

Jeb Dunnuck- 96+ pts.

“The 2018 First Tracks reveals a dense purple color as well as pure, full-bodied aromas and flavors of blue fruits, bouquet garni, cracked pepper, and violets. I love its purity of fruit, it’s perfectly balanced, has both power and elegance, and should have 10-15 years of longevity.”

Robert Parker, Wine Advocate - 96 pts.

“Its dark currant and cherry fruit are underpinned by a streak of iron, and the full-bodied palate offers tremendous silkiness, detail and length, with layers of mint chocolate, savory spice and violet. Winemaker Philipp Pfunder has lowered the proportion of Petit Verdot in this blend to moderate tannin, and this cuvée is notably refined in texture.”

“Sweet earth spice and dried herbs billow under a foggy ocean air-like mist. Its saline brilliance moves to dark fruit and picks up the essence of a coastal, forest trail lined in raspberry and blackberry bushes. This wine comes alive and engulfs the palate with a complex array of spice and dried herbs, leading to a freshness that eventually finishes opulent and slightly puckering. Our beloved GSM, will not only stop you in your tracks based on its vibrant color, but also the journey it takes you on, upon first sip.”

Jeb Dunnuck - 96 pts.

“The Southern Rhône inspired 2018 Sagacious (close to equal parts Grenache, Syrah, and Mourvèdre) offers lots of red and blue fruits as well as savory herbs, spice, and dried flower-like aromas and flavors. It’s seamless, full-bodied, and has remarkable purity of fruit. As with all the releases here, it’s a ripe, powerful wine loaded with character.”

Robert Parker, Wine Advocate - 95 pts.

“The nose offers top notes of cedar and graphite over cassis, blueberries and licorice. The full-bodied palate has explosive, perfumed, juicy fruits with a grainy texture and long, layered finish. It’s lovely right now but should age well in bottle.”

INTREPID 2018

LAW ESTATE WINES

100% Syrah

258 Cases Produced

Winemaker, Philipp Pfunder

"The 2018 Intrepid is a decadent expression of the best Syrah from Law Estate vineyards from an exceptional and milestone worthy vintage. Very low yields and a long warm summer prolonged the Syrah's hang time on the vine, generating serious complexity and concentration. A deep and dark core of black and blue fruit is complimented by a tremendous amount of spice, clove, black cardamom and gamy cured meats providing a sense of command and tension. Impossibly dark, perfectly balanced tannins and just a hint of exceptionally well-integrated oak created a truly Hedonistic expression of Syrah that will develop with true grace for the next 10 to 15 years."

Jeb Dunnuck - 97 pts.

"All Syrah, the 2018 Intrepid is another deep, full-bodied, incredibly impressive wine from this team that boasts a dense purple color, incredible aromatics of blackberries, graphite, roasted meats, and ground pepper, off-the-charts purity, and a layered, seamless texture that keeps you coming back to the glass. Aged 22 months in 72% new French oak, it's absorbed every trace of oak and is just a pure, hedonistic Syrah to enjoy

Robert Parker, Wine Advocate - 95+ pts.

"...alluring and savory, scented of cassis layered with pepper, garrigue, game meats and lavender. The full-bodied palate offers a harmony of rich, satiny fruit and bursts of juicy freshness that highlight the floral, spicy accents on the long finish."

LAW ESTATE WINES

100% Grenache

Winemaker, Philipp Pfunder

“The 2018 Nines displays a powerful choreography of concentration, opulence, tension and finesse. An unmistakably complex nose of black and red cherry, red currants and cranberry is joined by dried and fresh herbs and a ceaseless bouquet of red wild flower and violet. A limestone minerality significantly contributes to the bold, yet delicate, texture as the wine glides effortlessly across ones palate. Gorgeously ripe fruit creates a round and full bodied experience that showcases the promise of tremendous longevity, yet impossibly alluring right out of the gate. Grenache from the high elevation hillsides at Law truly produce a distinctive wine that simply cannot be recreated on any other site.”

Jeb Dunnuck, Wine Advocate - 99 pts.

“Just as sexy and hedonistic as they come, the 2018 The Nines (100% Grenache) reveals a lighter ruby hue as well as a magical bouquet of kirsch, ground pepper, sandalwood, and violets. It's full-bodied and powerful on the palate yet stays light on its feet, with perfect balance, ultra-fine tannins, and a great, great finish...it's up with the greatest Grenache from Paso Robles. It has another 10-12 years, probably more, of prime drinking ahead of it.”

Robert Parker, Wine Advocate - 96 pts.

“The medium to full-bodied palate is finessed and fresh this vintage, with intense, spicy fruits corseted by ripe, grainy tannins and finishing with notable length and layering.”

Winemaker, Philipp Pfunder

"The 2018 Prima has an impressively appealing nose with red and black fruit alongside spice and very distinct floral forest floor. Concentrated boysenberry, cranberry and raspberry provide for a juicy and fresh flavor, while the palate is equally impressive with tremendous texture and beautifully balanced, velvety tannins. There is a distinctly brambly leafy characteristic that is reminiscent of freshly raked autumn leaves on a crisp Fall day. Layers of complexity and a truly beautiful textural experience create a memorable wine that will please upon release and evolve to reveal a long and amazing journey for the next decade."

Jeb Dunnuck, Wine Advocate - 97 pts.

"All Mourvèdre, the 2018 Prima offers up an incredibly complex, full-bodied, layered style as well as loads of red and black fruits, notes of bouquet garni, flowers, cured meats, and distinct minerality, a dense mid-palate, building tannins, and a rock star of a finish. As with all the 2018s here, it has that rare mix of richness and elegance and is a stunningly good wine."

Robert Parker, Wine Advocate - 96 pts.

"...has a medium ruby-purple color and alluring aromas of preserves of blackberries and blueberries, with loads of layering notes of pepper, cured meats, garrigue and dried flowers. The palate is smooth and resolved, balancing intense fruit with freshness, most of the new oak already subsumed, and finishing long and floral."

Winemaker, Philipp Pfunder

“The three varieties that make up our beloved SÖPH create a unique harmony of richness, tension and freshness. Roussanne is all texture with ripe pear, Marsanne brings lovely floral aromatics, while the Clairette provides a bright zest. On the nose, it boasts ripe, almost candied lemon characteristics as well as some more tropical hints, all supported by magnolia and citrus blossom. On the palate SÖPH’s incredible texture remains silky, composed and balanced with perfect acidity to match the considerable opulence and concentration that this wine effortlessly exhibits.”

Jeb Dunnuck - 94 pts.

“The 2020 Soph (49% Roussanne, 26% Marsanne, and 25% Clairette Blanche) is beautiful, with ripe stone fruits, white flowers, toasted bread, and some chalky, mineral, and dried herb nuances. Beautifully textured, medium-bodied, and balanced, it’s another remarkable white from Paso Robles with tons to love.”
