LAW ESTATE WINES

86% Syrah, 14% Grenache

1,023 Cases Produced

Winemaker, Philipp Pfunder

“Always opulent, and dazzling while perfectly balanced, Aspire is one of the unmistakable blockbusters of the cellar, following in the footsteps of its Black Label counterpart, Intrepid. Full bodied, and a supple mouth feel, where deep black and blue fruits weave between notes of white pepper, purple flowers, garrigue and hints of toasted vanilla. Like an aged bottle of Intrepid, the 2019 Aspire is one for the books (or cellar) and will be matchless in its graceful ascent over several years to come.”

Jeb Dunnuck - 95 pts.

“Plums, blackberries, ground pepper, and graphite notes all emerge from the 2019 Aspire, which has plenty of background chocolaty oak, full body, ripe yet certainly present tannins, and a great finish. Based on 86% Syrah and 14% Grenache, fermented in concrete tanks and aged in two-thirds new French oak, this powerful, mouth-filling effort will drink well for 7-8 years.”

Robert Parker, Wine Advocate - 94+ pts.

“Medium ruby-purple, it opens with broody tones of cast iron and blue fruits, with wafts of purple flowers and aniseed. The full-bodied palate is well-framed, with grainy tannins and fresh acidity, and it finishes minerally. This deserves another 3-5 years in bottle and will be long-lived in the cellar.”

Winemaker, Philipp Pfunder

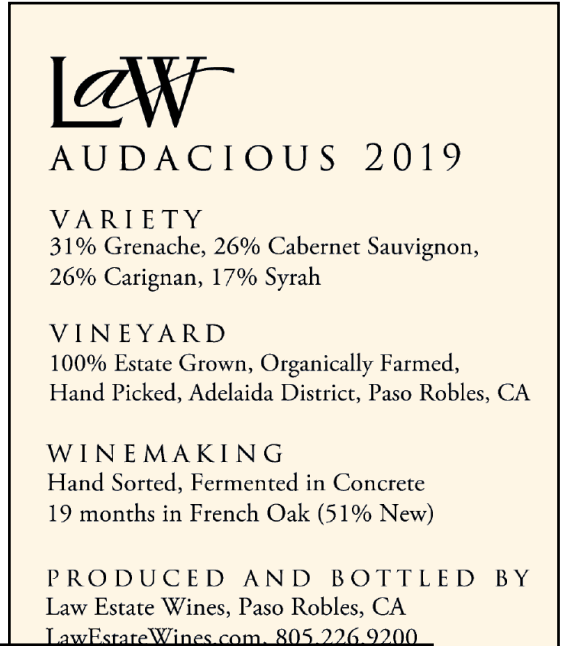

“The hallmark of complexity, brilliance and union of power, the 2019 Audacious reveals a striking nose of red currant, wild strawberries, new leather, eucalyptus, and herbes de Provence. The full-bodied richness carries from the front to the back palate providing vivid notes of black raspberry, cacao, graphite with a fan of spice and floral notes through an uplifted finish. Truly understanding the evolution of Audacious and its test of time, this vintage will be one to cherish, watching this pinnacle of depth and structure unfold over the next ten years plus.”

Jeb Dunnuck - 95 pts.

“The 2019 Audacious is another interesting blend from this estate that has tons to love. Ripe red and black berry fruits, toasted spice, chalky minerality, and ground pepper are just some of the nuances here, and it’s medium to full-bodied, with a layered, seamless texture, beautiful tannins, and a great finish. I’m a big fan, and this knockout bottle of wine will drink well for a decade.”

Robert Parker, Wine Advocate - 95 pts.

“Medium ruby-purple, it has dynamic aromas ranging from cassis and blue fruit to tobacco, bay leaves and dark spices, and it reveals lovely floral nuances with time in the glass. The medium-bodied palate has a soft, dusty texture, seamless acidity and a fan of spice and floral notes on the long, uplifted finish.”

BEGUILING 2019

LAW ESTATE WINES

88% Grenache, 12% Syrah

981 Cases Produced

Winemaker, Philipp Pfunder

“Beguiling stands front and center as the most elegant and riveting wine, in any lineup, and since its inaugural vintage, 2010. The clear distinction comes from both the terroir of the Law vineyard and a masterful selection of multiple clones and varied vineyard block aspects. Wild berry aromas, with nuances of dried flowers and brûléed blood orange peel, hover over a core of fresh red fruits, savory herbs, and wet stone minerality. The 2019 Beguiling is a textural stunner, where power, balance, and tension are the foundation of a wine that will be ever so enchanting with each passing day, for many years to come.”

Jeb Dunnuck - 96 pts.

“Aged 19 months in a mix of French oak and concrete, it has a terrific perfume of candied strawberries, blackberries, violets, cracked pepper, and new leather. This carries to a full-bodied Grenache with plenty of savory tannins, a seamless, elegant texture, flawless balance, and a great finish.”

Robert Parker, Wine Advocate - 94 pts.

“...the 2019 Beguiling has a pale ruby-purple color and fragrant wild berry aromas, with detailed nuances of earth, dried flowers and Angostura bitters. The palate is equally elegant, with dusty tannins, uplifting acidity and a flourish of spices on the very long finish.”

335 Cases Produced

Winemaker, Philipp Pfunder

“Beyond Category has amassed quite the following amongst our members and collectors over the years; coveted and sought after not only for its limited production, but also, for its modern full bodied richness alongside classic Tempranillo structure and tannins. Blue fruits, black cherries and currants sweeps across the palate carrying highlights of smoked fresh fig, dried mint, baking spices and coffee. Patience is a virtue, until you taste the igniting flavors of the 2019 vintage and previous vintages alike.”

Jeb Dunnuck - 94 pts.

“Lots of ripe red and black fruits, white pepper, cedary spice, leather, and graphite emerge on the nose, and it’s medium to full-bodied, with a supple, layered, heady mouthfeel, ripe tannins, and a great finish.”

Robert Parker, Wine Advocate - 92-94 pts.

“Medium ruby-purple, it has pleasantly rustic scents of blackcurrants laced with coffee, mushrooms, violets and iron. The full-bodied palate has abundant, grainy tannins and rounded freshness, finishing spicy.”

Winemaker, Philipp Pfunder

“Showcasing the brilliance and distinction of old-world Bordeaux in a new world chassis, this wine presents textural perfection. When we released the 2017 First Tracks two years ago, we thought it would be impossible to strike the same level of near-perfection ever again; this 2019 vintage of First Tracks is an absolute rival for Top Spot. Silken textured waves of blackberry and cassis fruit, with flares of savory dark chocolate, violets, raw tobacco and peppery herbs, weaved in phenomenal harmony. The ultra fine-knit tannin structure sets the stage for its performance of power, entertaining your palate long after the wine glass has been set down and the curtain has dropped. Like all our Black Label Spring Release wines, First Tracks is a show stopper and will continue to unfurl its immaculate and infinite layers with gorgeous balance and poise.”

Jeb Dunnuck- 95+ pts.

“This powerful, full-bodied, concentrated effort has tons of savory blackberry and darker plum fruits, a big, rich mid-palate, ripe tannins, and classic notes of chocolate, peppery herbs, and earth. The balance here is spot on, it has plenty of structure...”

Robert Parker, Wine Advocate - 95 pts.

“Deep ruby-purple, it’s scented of cassis, violet and graphite with savory tones of tobacco and leather. The full-bodied palate offers a great balance of intense, blue-tinged fruits and an abundance of fresh acidity, and it has a long, mineral-driven finish.”

Winemaker, Philipp Pfunder

“Always true to its name, Sagacious presents the embodiment of wisdom exponentially over time, showing an immaculate purity of fruit, structure, and an everlasting finish. The 2019 Sagacious drives an array of mouth-watering black and red fruits, dried cherries, crushed violets, cedar, and dried sweet herbs. Bright, silky, and fresh in its youth, this wine is destined for an extraordinary evolution through infinite layers of aromatics and flavors, producing unbridled umami notes in its graceful aging for many years to come.”

Jeb Dunnuck - 95 pts.

“Lots of darker plum and blackberry fruits as well as peppery herbs, spring flowers, and spicy notes emerge from the 2019 Sagacious, another ripe, medium to full-bodied, beautifully balanced red that has tons of minerality and savory earth-like nuances on the palate. As with all of these, it has incredible character and, I have no doubt, a decade of longevity.”

Robert Parker, Wine Advocate - 95 pts.

“Medium ruby-purple, it has red cherry and blueberry fruit with a range of accents from dark spices and earth to bright bitters, lilac and citrus. The palate is silky and super fresh, with spices and mineral character on the long finish. It’s lovely now, but it will develop more savory layers with time in bottle.”

346 Cases Produced

Winemaker, Philipp Pfunder

“This wine stands alone in distinction and confidence, surpassing even the men who created it. The power and purity of lush black and blue fruits, remarkable echoes of minerality, leather, savory meats and spice play to its fleshy and extraverted nature. We are elated that the 10th anniversary release of Intrepid is coming by way of the 2019 vintage; a pinnacle when it comes to showcasing the perfect play of opulence, freshness, structure, and brilliant texture. This is a wine to always have on hand in your cellars and fridges. Not only is this vintage of Intrepid one of the best releases in terms of complexity and quality, this is a wine that will perform infinite evolutions during its graceful aging for many years to come.”

Jeb Dunnuck - 95+ pts.

“It has a big, ripe, sexy, classic Paso Robles Syrah vibe in its sweet blackberry fruits as well as notes of ground pepper, smoke meat, and savory herbs. Ripe, powerful, and structured on the palate, it’s another wine that brings lots of savory tannins...”

Robert Parker, Wine Advocate - 96+ pts.

“Intrepid Syrah offers intense, spicy black fruits on the nose with touches of garrigue, earth and iron. The full-bodied palate’s lush blue and black fruits are tempered by mineral tones, and it finishes with considerable freshness, length and alluring perfume. It’s a gorgeous young Syrah that will continue to develop in bottle over the next decade and beyond.”

LAW ESTATE WINES

100% Grenache

324 Cases Produced

Winemaker, Philipp Pfunder

“Like a coiled rattlesnake, The Nines is prepared for an imminent explosion! Its power and tension flows from front to back and from side to side. Its perfume subtly seduces with notes of black raspberries, loamy earth, wild berry compote and hints of pepper. While the palate lures with a dazzling array of black fruits, raspberries, wild flowers and an entwined minerality and spice, the finish strikes with a long-lasting, sexy decadence. Distinctly Law Vineyard’s Grenache, there is nothing in the world like this wine. Due to its praise every year, The Nines garners the greatest anticipation for release from Members and collectors alike. The 2019 is showing its seductive purity with incredible intensity now but we know this vintage will be an absolute show-stopper when it is released from your cellars over the next several years.”

Jeb Dunnuck - 95+ pts.

“...this 100% Grenache has a translucent ruby color to go with a gorgeous perfume of black raspberries, loamy earth, chalky minerality and hints of pepper. It’s medium to full-bodied on the palate, with a round, supple texture and terrific balance. It will stand up to any number of brilliant Châteauneuf du Papes and is one awesome expression of Grenache.”

Robert Parker, Wine Advocate - 94 pts.

“The medium-bodied palate is grainy and uplifted, finishing with great length and layers. Its generous, spicy fruits will offer the most flash and perfume over the next five years and take on more savory character with additional time in bottle.”

Winemaker, Philipp Pfunder

“Marking a decade of excellence, Law Estate debuts its inaugural reserve Cabernet. However, the best part of this wine is also the worst part of this wine: a small quantity produced in vintages deemed superior for Cabernet. That being said, the deft craftsmanship at the hands of Winemaker Philipp Pfunder is evident in this wine. Tenure working in the cellars of Screaming Eagle, HDV and Chateau Angelus were part of Phil’s path that leading to his confident assertion that the 2019 Cabernet fruit from the Law Vineyard is world-class. The aromatics and flavors are bursting with black currant, violets and cassis, while sparks of graphite, eucalyptus and cedar bounce off the robust structure, carrying this wine long on the palate. The 2019 Cabernet from Law will be allocated to Black Label Members with a longer tenure on our list.”

Jeb Dunnuck - 94+ pts.

“Classic Cabernet green tobacco, cedar pencil, chalky minerality, and assorted currant-like fruits define the bouquet of the 2019 Cabernet Sauvignon, a rich, structured red with lots of ripe tannins, good overall balance, and a great finish. Aged 22 months in new French oak, give it a year or two and enjoy over the following decade.”

“Like a hardened boat captain, Prima boasts familiar old-world and new-world characteristics, displaying a lustrous blackberry and raspberry core wrapped in layers of earth, black cardamom, cool, crushed stone, violet and a distinct rustic quality. Its silky, polished tannins will glide upon your palate, luring you in before striking with a thrilling finish. Well-traveled, multi-dimensional and mysterious, it wants to tell its tale by providing a colorful intensity that must be tasted to be explained. There are very few producers in the world making 100% Mourvedre. A rare find, Prima has proven to be the hidden gem for both collectors and pleasure seekers in the wine world.”

Jeb Dunnuck - 98 pts.

“... sports a deep ruby/plum color to go with a rocking bouquet of ripe blackberry and black raspberry-like fruit as well as toasted spice, cured meats, leather, and savory pepper. It's heavenly on the palate as well and is medium to full-bodied, with supple, polished tannins, beautiful mid-palate depth, and a thrilling finish. I'd put this up with the finest expressions of the variety in California.”

Robert Parker, Wine Advocate - 97 pts.

“...stands out for its unusually expressive aromatics and textural polish. The nose is layered and deep, its bramble fruits accented by Nag Champa incense, cast iron, purple flowers and exotic spices. “The unity of this wine is linked on a tight rope of balance. SÖPH is pretty, yet serious; giving generously, yet remains focused. A lively tension of brilliant lemon and orange peel, balances a decadent ripeness of juicy white peach, golden apple, honeycomb, and honeysuckle; an act, brilliantly poised in the balance of ripeness and tension. Like the dawn of a Spring morning, it breathes new life and starts a new beginning. This beautiful Rhone expression can be cellared to build complexity over the next ten years; gaining maturity, wisdom and even more personality, like the true inspiration behind the wine itself, our lovely Sophia.”

Jeb Dunnuck - 95 pts.

“...is up there with some of my favorite whites in the vintage. Ripe pineapple, caramelized citrus, brioche, and hints of toast all define the aromatics, and it's medium to full-bodied, with a layered, seamless mouthfeel and an incredible mix of both richness and freshness. It's the Rhône blend equivalent of a great Montrachet.”

Robert Parker, Wine Advocate - 96 pts.

“It features lush white peach, golden apple, honeysuckle, pie crust, beeswax and almonds on the nose. The medium-bodied palate is silky and expansive with a balance of concentrated, honeyed fruits and sparks of refreshing acidity, and it has a long, flavorful finish.”
